

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept the attached resume for the open position with your organization. As it will show, I have made a personal commitment to my career and many different industries. I am currently looking for an opportunity to use my education and training within a well respected and employee focused organization.

My career experience has proven to be diverse in that I have had the opportunity to experience many facets of marketing, sales, business development, public relations, grant writing, e-commerce, data analysis, budgeting, advertising, print and web design, customer service, and management. In addition, my dedication to further my commitment is shown through my volunteer hours, educational investment, and passion for personal and professional growth.

I would enjoy the opportunity to visit with you in person to discuss my qualifications. You may contact me at (859) 559-8806 or info@bobbylacer.com at any time. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
